

Workshops

The goal of the workshop is to work on a clinical issue in a round-table setting which allows exchange between the conferees. A smaller room size (eighty seats) is favourable to a dynamic and interactive work style.

The workshops will be held in French but special attention will be made by multilingual colleagues to facilitate exchange in the various languages of the AEPEA.